CRIMINAL COMPLAINT

I, the complainant in this case, state that the following is true to the best of my knowledge and belief. On or about the date of November 28, 2019 in the county of Dona Ana in the State and District of New Mexico, the defendant violated 8 U.S.C. §1324(a)(1)(A)(v)(I)(Conspiracy to Violate 1324 - All subsections), an offense described as follows:

Knowingly, intentionally, and unlawfully conspired, combined, confederated and agreed with others known and unknown, to commit offenses against the United States, namely: to transport, move, and attempt to transport and move an alien within the United States by means of transportation and otherwise

This criminal complaint is based on these facts:

On November 28, 2019, Border Patrol Agents observed a grey Chevy Equinox travelling northbound on Highway 185 turn around southbound just short of the Border Patrol Checkpoint located on Highway 185, mile marker 26, in Dona Ana County, New Mexico. Agents caught up with the vehicle and initiated a vehicle stop near mile marker 23.

Agents approached the vehicle and noticed more passengers than there were seats. After identifying themselves, the Agents questioned the driver, James Mastronardi, and the passengers as to their citizenship. Mastronardi stated he was a United States citizen. The passengers did not respond.

All nine passengers stated they were not citizens of the United States and did not possess any immigration documents to be or remain in the United States legally. Mastronardi and the nine passengers were transported to the Border Patrol Station in Las Cruces, New Mexico for further questioning and processing.

Mastronardi stated he was given instructions to take Interstate 25 to Highway 185 towards Albuquerque, New Mexico because there were no checkpoints. He stated he told his friend the checkpoint was open and his friend told him not to panic and to listen to her.
